Introduction

If you are a patient, carer or member of the public who works with NIHR Oxford BRC on the design and planning of research or in a strategic advisory role, you are entitled to receive payment for your time. Not all who are offered payment choose to accept it, but this document sets out what is available, what you need to do to receive payment and how to proceed if you are on state benefits.

1. What are the principles of payment?

This document sets out how we will pay for your time working with us, and how much we will offer to pay. This is distinct from reimbursing expenses such as travel costs, which we will always do or, where possible, pay for you in advance, for example, booking train tickets or a hotel if you need overnight accommodation. Subject to agreement, we may also reimburse significant costs of home-working such as printing large documents or making telephone calls.

Offering payment for your time recognises the contribution that you make to our work. It does not mean that you have a contract of employment with us. The rates in this document are a guide, and details will be agreed, alongside the work plan, with the theme or working group with which you are involved (see “Who to contact”, below).

Please ask in advance if you might need help with childcare costs to enable you to work with us, costs for a carer to come with you to meetings or to provide respite care at home. If you have to travel far for meetings, we will consider paying for time taken to travel; please also ask us about this in advance. We will not normally pay for time taken for training that is aimed at enabling you to carry out your work with us.

2. Am I eligible for payment?

If you do not have a full time public sector salary you are eligible to receive payment from us. If you do work full time in the public sector we are able to pay you if your job is unrelated to the task(s) you do for us and you do them in your free time.

3. How will I be paid?

NB Themes whose budget is held at the University and not the Trust may need to alter details below - see the document “NIHR Oxford BRC Patient and Public Involvement (PPI) in Research Payment Policy”
As noted above, travel and other expenses will be paid where possible on your behalf, in advance. If you have bought tickets etc. yourself, we will reimburse you as soon as possible after we receive the original receipts and a signed claim form from you (which we will provide).

If you have accepted an offer of payment for your time, this must be submitted on a different form (NEP01 - see appendix A).

Receiving payment for your time is based on two simple steps:

1. Agreeing with us in advance what you will be paid, based on rates below
2. Filling in the NEP01 form (appendix A), signing and returning it with original receipts for expenses if you have any. Our finance department will usually process this within 4-6 weeks depending at what stage in the month it is submitted.

4. How much will I be paid?

Our rates are based on those of other similar organisations and are a guide. Payment will be agreed with you before work is done, in part as there will be times when the activity does not fit the categories below.

Payment rate guide

- Full day meetings: £150 - to include all preparation and follow-up
- Half day meetings: £75 - to include all preparation and follow-up
- All day meetings where you are the chair or have considerable preparation and/or follow-up: £225
- Half day as above: £110
- Meetings or other work totalling approx 2-3 hours: £50
- Short pieces of work which require little preparation or follow-up, such as a telephone meeting or reviewing short documents; approx 1-2 hours: £20.00

We may also invite you to get involved with reviewing/commenting on documents, research plans etc via email or post. Approximate rates for this are:

- Reviewing short documents, up to approx 50 pages: £50
- Reviewing e.g. grant applications/mid-length reports (~50-100 pages): £150
5. Do I have to pay tax and National Insurance on any payment I receive?

You will be paid via the payroll of OUH NHS Trust THEMES TO AMEND IF UNIVERSITY which will normally deduct income tax and National Insurance (NI) at source (just like “PAYE”) even though you will not have a contract of employment with us. You will be asked to fill in a form (NEP01; appendix A) where both reimbursement of any expenses and payment for your time will be detailed.

If you are self-employed, you can fill in an additional form (see Appendix B), return it with the NEP01 and the Trust will make no deductions and you will be liable for all declarations of earnings.

6. Can I receive payment if I am on benefits or have a pension?

You can always accept reimbursement of expenses, but receipt of payment is a very complex area if you are on state benefits of any kind and/or a state pension. We urge you to take specialist advice before agreeing to accept payment. There is a free national confidential service designed specifically to help patients and members of the public in this situation, provided by the Bedford Citizens Advice Bureau. Please see details here: http://www.invo.org.uk/benefits-advice-service-for-involvement-for-members-of-the-public/

It is important to tell them about all forms of PPI payment that you may have been offered, if you are being paid for involvement by other organisations in addition to ours.

Because our payments are made “PAYE,” an alert may be sent to the benefits authorities when you join the payroll to the effect that you have “started paid employment”. As this could result in benefits being stopped, it is essential to take advice from the service above about how to notify the relevant benefits authorities in advance that you are signing up to PAYE for intermittent paid involvement.
